Surplus or Deficit

This year's surplus
OR This year's deficit
Last year's surplus
OR Last year's deficit

Usually income and expenditure are closely balanced, so the surplus or deficit is small. If this is not the case (e.g. the surplus or deficit is more than 10% of the expenditure) please explain what caused the imbalance. For example a large surplus may indicate saving for a capital project; equally a large deficit may arise from the loss or late payment of a regular grant.

Please remember to send a one page letter telling us why your project should be supported, and enclose your latest accounts if they are not showing on the Charity Commission website www.charity-commission.gov.uk

You may also send other supporting material if you wish, but Trustees may only see your letter and the application form. A short and succinct letter will help your project to be shortlisted.
